Rio de Janeiro – Curitiba – Buenos Aires – Foz do Iguaçu

Day 1

Rio de Janeiro

Arrival and reception at the airport. Transfer to the selected hotel.

A basket of fresh fruit will be awaiting the newly wed.

Evening outing to enjoy a “bossa nova” show.

Day 2

Rio de Janeiro

Brazilian breakfast and bus ride to the “Sugar Loaf” where we will take the famous “cable car”. This rocky bulk at the entrance of Guanabara Bay is one of Rio de Janeiro landmarks which has made the city famous all over the world. This “cable car” dates from 1912 and offers one of the most dazzling panoramic views ever seen.

Lunch in a typical Steak House. Afterwards, we will visit the “Corcovado”, whose privileged location on the “Corcovado Hill” (710 meters), opposite the “Sugar Loaf” and Guanabara Bay, offers an incredible sweeping view of the city. This picturesque landscape has become a famous postcard of Rio de Janeiro.

* Back in the city we will stroll along Copacabana Beach, the most famous “carioca” neighbourhood. This three kilometre beach shelters the most diverse “carioca” characters.

Copacabana Fort, located at one end of the beach, **has been since 1908, the battle scene and spearhead of the city defense.

Arpoador Stone (“Harpooner’s Stone”), a sharp rocky point that submerges in the sea, is the most beautiful place on this beach. Its name comes from the practice of hunting whales in the times of Empire.

Ipanema Beach, with its wide sidewalks where people practise different sports, offers a unique spectacle, full of charm and “carioca” beauty.

Leblon Beach, more conservative and intimate, offers a surf show that attracts both locals and tourists.

“Rodrigo da Freitas” Lagoon is one of Rio de Janeiro most visited places, because of the practice of sports and its leisure areas.

Return to hotel.
